The rightenes confidereth the cause of the Poor; because the confidereth his own nature, state, and condition : and looketh up to his Goo, as his almighty law-giver, his conftant benefactor, his greatest example, and his supreme good. He considereth his riches as the rewards of virtue and induftry; but at the fame time, as talents put into his hands by the giver of every good gift : upon trust, to apply them to the proper uses that offer themfelves in the variety of occurrences here; of which Matt, xii. 36. be shall give account in the day of judgment? The life, the doctrines, the precepts, the threats, the promiles of our Master and Saviour, all tend to inculcate this great duty of beneficence to the poor deftiture, to their fouls and bodies and we may there read plainly our obligafions to employ our endeavours, to turn them from fin unto righteousness, and to enlarge the kingdom of God upon earth. General principles must be firmly fixed, before we can act steadily and uniformly in particular cases. A well-disposed mind will, however, be more especially attentive to what passes around thim, in that station in which providence hath placed him: there, he will be sensible that his authority, his influence, and his powers, will have their proper force: there, his obligations are the strongest; for, there his enteryours will produce the greatest

The rouse then consider the particular motives to make a due provision for the Poor, which arise from their present state amongst us. We certainly do not want the most urgent motives to pursue this end, and it is not easy to imagine, that in a country of civil and religious liberty, of trade and manufactures, the means should be wanting to set the Poor upon a right footing or box, about contract in Deut, xv. 11. that the Poor foodd never coofe out of the land, is furficiently declared to all other nations by the very confitution of things, which he hath established. Society cannot be carried on without the labor of the Poor: upon their sobriety and diligence, depend its peace and happiness: upon their sense of justice and truth, depend its union and security. It is generally avoused that the number of a people make the riches of a nation: but, by an inadequate provision for the Poor, the maxim may be reversed, and the number of people become a heavy and useless burs dens instead of a supportus. The infirm, the industrious, trious, and the lazy make up the body of the Poor. The infirm claim our pity in relieve them, the inour refolution to force their to labor. - Can we fee without horror and compation that perverie igno-rance and vitiousness, that obstinate idleness and mifery amongst the lower part of this nation; uncomfortable and destructive to themselves, unprofitable and often mischievous to others? DIFFICULTIES again arise from that prevalence of luxury, which we see tempts all persons to live above the rank which they hold in the Society. Luxury hath fatally spread its influence amongst those middling parts of the community which heretofore Ecclef. vii. 10. were untainted : in this particular furely; the former times were better than shefe, if we confider the general propensity to inattention, dislipation and extravagance, which at present reigns in all conditions of life.—It is not that the passing of property from one perfon: to another hurts fociety o but the means, whereby the ruin of individuals is effected, the principles which in that course of profusion are cultivated, the baseness and villary which indigence so bad example, these hurt society. THESE difficulties which arise from the nature of liberty, from the method of executing all legal provision for the Poor, and from the general prevalence of luxury, should not discourage, but rather ani mate our endeavours to conquer them. If the difficulties are not conquered, the most pernicious conlequences must enercase continually, to the reproach; the detriment, and the danger of this nation : for it is natural to think, that the Poor, if unreformed, will go on every day more and more, firengebening Palm li. 7. themselves in their wickedness. The inclinations of the wifest and best men of all times, the expectations of all orders and degrees of people, ought to keep our atdeavours to furmount those difficulties (for many there are) which lie in the way, nor let our encouragement be wanting to any probable methods, that may conduce to an end of fuch great and important confequence to the virtue, the peace, and professity of this country. Whatever scheme is formed, one part must be founded upon the same principles with these Schools, which we are here met to promote. when he came into the world, found the state of reliboth amongst the Year and the Gentiles. Amongst the Gentiles, the reasonings of the Philosophers, and the mysteries of the Priests (supposing even that no impurities had crept into them) were not calculated for the body of the people. Amongst the Yews, the theory of their Religion lay all funk in tradition, and the practice of it in hypocrify. But the Gospel of CHRIST was promulged upon quite different principles: it was one great bufiness, as well as mark of his mission, that the Poor had the Gospel preached to them. The end of his coming was to declare the glad tidings of falvation unto all the nations of the earth; and the whole purpose of his teaching, was 2Tim. iii. 15. to make all men wife unto falvation. The rites he instituted are few and plain, and pure: the law he gave, is universal and beneficial to all orders and degrees of men, open to general examination, adapted to all capacities, defigned for all ages, and -noggo

THIS is the general nature of the law of CHRIST: very different from the system of the church of Rome, which is formed upon the basest maxims of implicit faith, and blind obedience; and drives the bulk of mankind back into that ignorance and fuperstition, which Christianity was given to cure. The learned amongst the Heathers could look thro the groffness of their doctrines about their Gods, the vulgar could not. The learned amongst the Papists will not swallow the glaring absurdities of their tenets; the people will; and the truth is, that the neglect or mistakes of teachers in other churches may hinder knowledge, but the very nature of the constitution of the church of Rome, shuts up the kingdom of beaven Matt. xiii. 13. against men; and neither the wisdom of the learned, nor the integrity of the virtuous among them, can frop the general influence of the established system. Whatever may have been the secret springs of our Reformation from them, the principles of it were undoubtedly founded upon a ferious, free, and fair enquiry into the doctrines of our Religion, and an unconfined instruction of all men as plainly, and as clearly as possible in the terms of our common falvation. On this foundation only can it be maintained; and this is the main defign of all the rules established in our church.

This is the nature of the Christian Religion, as professed and taught amongst us; plainly referring itself to the judgment and consciences of all men, with simplicity and truth; and declaring with full authority and clearness, the end of their faith, even the salvation of their souls.—And yet indifference to the doctrines, the duties, and the discipline of our Religion, has gained such ground in this nation, that it apparently makes way for the policy and delusion of those who, if they are fincere, must be irreconcileable enemies to all our civil and religious liberties.

As to the precepts of the Christian Religion, they all impire a sense of those duties, and instil a love of those virtues, which are the great guardians of peace upon earth, and good-will amongst men. The principles of the Gospel cultivate the general interests of civil society: they alone can ascertain the due execution of laws, and secure the ends intended by them. Human laws, for want of the hopes and sears of immortality, extend but to a small part of duty: this we experience in the habits, and temper, and manners of the inferior part of this nation; who imitate the vices of their superiors, and render the evil universal. A just sense of our duty in our several relations, which is enforced by the law of Christ, is the only source, and solid basis of the vigor, tranquility, and prosperity of every community, and of every individual.

To fee a person of low condition, and plain understanding by Christian instruction and early discipline, acting his part in life, folas to follow every true end of it: entering pinto the world with a well-disposed mind, and a fincere heart: endeavouring to correct the defects of his temper, and his passions chaying a plain view of his duty to Goo, his neighbour, and himfelf: and behaving always with a defire to gain the approbation of his Maker, and his own conficence: making use of his acquisitions and talents to fulfil his feveral duties maintaining a character of piety and probity, of humility and loyalty, of industry and charity going through life with credit and reputation, with integrity and resolution; and finishing his course with Christian relignation and comfort. You ought to be ready and able to give an answer to every inquirer; that you use the most probable means, and would be glad to use more successful means, to bring up thefe children in the nurture and admonition of the Lord; to make them honest and useful members of society. For the success you cannot answer. You know that it is not the will of your Father which is in heaven, that one of these little Matt.xviii.14. ones should perish: and therefore you think it your duty to your God and your country, to contribute your part to cultivate virtue, and truth, and induftry amongst them; and to promote their happiness here and hereafter, and the standard of the

SOCIETY for PROMOTING

HE Society for Promoting Christian Knowledge having been many Years engaged in carrying on such Designs as they judged might promote the Interests of true Religion, and the Honour of Almighty GOD, and which by his Bleffing have in a great measure answered those Ends; but finding that such their Designs are not so generally known as they could wish, and consequently not so much encouraged as they presume they will be, when surther known; they therefore publish this Account of them: and have also resolved to communicate to the Publick, from year to year, their Proceedings, and the State of their Affairs.

THE SOCIETY confift partly of SUB-SCRIBING, and partly of CORRESSPONDING Members; who, before they can be chosen, must be recommended in the form No I, in the Appendix. The former (of woomsyou have a List joined to the same Number in the Appendix) subscribe such Annual Sums as every one thinks proper, towards carrying on the Deligns of the Society; and have their regular Meetings, in which all Bufiness relating thereunto is transacted. And as most of these, when this Society was first formed, did live in or near Lordon, they were then called RESIDING Members. The latter, are such reslocation Great Britain and Ireland, and other Protestant Countries, as are chosen to correspond with the Society, on purpose to acquaint them, from time to time, with the State of Religion in their Neighbourhood i to suggest fuch Methods of doing Good as occur to them; to diftribute Bibles with thich religious as well as ufeful Books, as are from time to time approved of, and recommended by the Society; and to remit occasional Benefactions, which they themselves are pleased to contribute, or collect from well disposed Christaged in courring on fuch Delignants Bur for the better understanding the Nature and Defigns of this Society, it is thought convenient to premife a fhort Narrative of its Rife and Progress It was about the latter Bad of the Year 1608; that a few Gentlemen formed themselves into a Vois luntury Society, and as fuch, they with Unanimity of the Society, and Zeal went on together in promoting the real and practical Knowledge of true Religion, by foch Man thods as appeared to them, from time to time, to be most conducive to that End, till towards the Conmolodore of their Affairs.

Anno 1608. The Original elution of the Year 1701, when, at their Instance. a Charter was obtained from King WILLIAM III. whereby all the then Subscribing Members of this Society, with other Persons of Distinction in Church and State, were Incorporated for the better carrying of the Incoron that Branch of their Defigns which related to the for Propagation Plantations, Colonies, and Factories beyond the Seas, of the Goffel in Foreign Parts. belonging to the Kingdom of England; from which time that excellent Work has, by the Divine Bleffing, been fuccelsfully conducted by that Corporation.

Bur their Charter being limited to Foreign Parts, The Incorpoand the Business of that Corporation being hitherto rated Society sonfin'd to the British Plantations in America; most to the British of the Original Members of our Voluntary Society, Plantations, fill continued to carry on, in that Capacity, their the Original Members conmore extensive Designs for advancing the Honour of tinue at a Ve-GOD, and the Good of Mankind, by promoting luntary Society. Christian Knowledge, both at Home and in other Parts of the World, by the best Methods that should offer. They are therefore a Society diffinct from the Corporation, and known by the Name of the Society for Promoting Christian Unowledge.

THEIR principal Methods were the fame as they had been before. The FIRST, to procure and encourage the creeting of CHARITY-6CHOOLS, in all Parts of the Kingdom; and that those Schools might answer the true Purposes for which they were erected, the Society has not been wanting in their Correspondence (with such of their Members as have been concern'd in their Support and Management). to recommend at all Times, that, together with Religious and Useful Instruction, Care should be taken, and all proper Means used, to inure the Children of the Poor to Industry and Labour, fo that they may :xpence: become become good Christians, loyal, and useful Subjects: and be willing, as well as fit to be employ'd, not only in Trades or Services, but also in Husbandry, Navigation, or any other Business, that shall be thought of most Use and Benefit to the Publick. With these Views the Society printed and difperfed fuch a Sec of Rules for the good Order and Government of thefe Schools, as had been approved of by the Archbishops and Bishops, who directed, that the same should be observed within their respective Dioceses: But what Care they have taken, and what they have done in these Particulars, will appear from No II, in the Appendix. erated Society

The following PROPOSA L baving been made to the Soute Ty Joine Time ago, was reprinted by them, and recommended again to the Confideraand diffributed among their which are in and about London

HE Instructing of Youth, and Providing for A Proposal for the Poor and Impotent, are fuch obvious Du-so the Learnthat they meet with universal Approbation ; ing usually out the most proper Means to atrain that good given to the d, is often disputed.

Tur Erecting of Charity Schools has most cer-Chudren, day tainly laid a good Foundation for the first; and the late excellent Law relating to Work-Houses, has put it in the Power of every Parish in a much better Manner to provide for the latter.

As to the Charity Schools, it must needs be acknowledged, that those excellent Persons who first form'd, and they who have fince conducted that good Work; ought ever to be mentioned with Honour: and now, that such Schools are established in most eres of the Kingdom, it is much to be wished at fome Means could be contrived to render them fill more useful, and effectually to answer the good Purposes of their Institution.

IT is conceived, that if the Children educated in Charity Schools, were employed in some such Business as they are capable of, it would be no Hindrance to their Learning, and might have a very good Effect, by inuring them early to Industry, but what hat Employment should be, and the Manner of conlucting it, must be left to the Managers of the feversl Schools, who are the best Judges of what is most proper and convenient to be done. THE Spinning of coarfe Wool, Flax, or Hemp, Thing eaffly learne, and the Wafte which will be always made by Beginners won't amount to much. And if it were possible to to contrive it, that the Parents of the Children might reap forme Advantage from what is fo earned, it would be a great inducement for them to keep the Children to their Business; and if the Undertaking succeeded, it is to be hoped, that many good People would fend in coarse Materials to be work'd up for the Benefit of the School.

of the School.

"It's impossible to give minute and particular Directions for conducting this Undertaking, and therefore that must be left to the Managers, who will belt judge what is necessary to be done; but till she School is very well got into four Method, the best way will most certainly be to keep the Buliness in a Imali compass.

"Into the Spinning of Wool, and Plax, or Fleinp, is proposed, as most advantageous, yet where this is found impracticable, the Children should be imposed in Kome other Way, and always have what they care for their Encouragement. MINUTE THE Truffees of the Navigation School taking Notice, that it bath often happened, that the Parents or Friends of the Boys taught in this School, and qualified to be put put to Sea Service, have refused or prevented their being bound out Apprentice to such Service, contrary to their own Agreement upon their Admittance into this School, to the Hindrance of this Charity, and the Publick Detriment; For preventing therefore such Inconveniencies, as much as in the Trustees of this School lies, it is to be wilhed, that the Trustees of the Charity Schools, at their next general Meeting, would be pleafed to come to a Resolution, that the Bays sent from heir respective Charity Schools to this School to be raught Vavigation, shall receive no further Benefit from them, unless fuch Boys shall be bound out Apprentice to Sca-Serice at fuch Time as the Trustees of this School shall think them fufficiently qualified in that Behalf.

The above Minute of the Truftees of the Navigation School, having been laid before the Truffees of the Charity Schools, at their General Meeting, the 7th of February, they came to the following Refolution.

Se Dunftan's Quep-House, Deb. 7, 1750 1. At a General Meeting of the Truftees of the Charity Schools;

A Greed, to recommend it to the Truftees of the Charity Schools, that for the future, the Boys who are ent to the Navigation School in Hatton Garden, be bound Apprentice to the Sea Service only, and at such Time as the Trustees of the said School shall judge them sufficiently qualified. And in case any Boy shall refuse to go to Sea, after he has learned Navigation, such Boy shall then be de-prived of the Money allotted by the Trustees of the School o which he belongs, to put him Apprentice to any other

Which Resolution it is defired may be complied with by the Trustees of the several Schools who send Boys to the Navigation School.

Such is said has been for force Time the general State of the Mission at Madras, which the Journal of the Missionaries also shows in several Particularity and remarkable Providences. For instance, they wisely and religiously observe, "how the Judgementa of Man, and the Tri"umphs of their Popis Etamies, seven to the Desolution of their Place and Sanctuary) had been both the Occafion and the Motive of Orders from the Honourable Directors of the East India Company to their Growner and Comment there, not to permit henceforward any Popiss or Armenium to dwell in the White-Town; and not and magnificent Church, which the Fronch Missionaries had formerly built in it at Wapery, and which had been consistented in 1749, upon the Evacuation of Fort St.

Accordingly, when he died he was buried there and upon this Protence the Poetle Priefs had kept Poffession of it ever fince. I Now the Consequence of this Delay was, that in the mean Time there came a fecond and preimprory Order from the Directors to the confirm what had been before decreed by their Government of the Pres St David, fo far as they had Powers and to be affior this very Church, and the Houses of the French ment the Port St Devid, for far as they had Power; and to affigue this very Church, and the Houses of the French Millionaries, to the English; as also to pay to them, at just Times as they should be proper, the Sum of 500 to Pagodas, by Way of Indomnies for what they had suffered in the War, and as a further Benevolence towards reflection their present Distretter, and the thorough Reflection in the War, and as a further Benevolence towards reflection ment of their Mission.—However, thro' some necessary impediments this was not done; although the Governor and Council there had all along shewn a fincere lacination and Defire to serve them.—But it seems the Princip Missionaries at Positions, upon hearing this News, removed their Chira upon Peter Haston's Title; and got and Fasti,—Whilst this Affair was depending, it pleased and Fasti,—Whilst this Affair was depending, it pleased that with so terrible a Storm of Lightning and Taunder, of Wind and Rame, and this followed by an Indeed, of Wind and Rame, and this followed by an Indeed, of Wind and Rame, and this followed by an Indeed, of Wind and Rame, and this followed by an Indeed, of Wind and Rame, and this followed by an Indeed. der of Wind and Rame, and the followed by an In-municipal that the Houses and Buildings the Millio-maries then lived in, were defined; and nothing left to preferve even their Lives, but a little Part of their Portuguese School-room; which also having but a bad Foundation, they fled as foon as they could lafely with their Bedtling and Cheks to Capet School fairly House, as the Freezest, ladest, and servained them both courted caffy and hospitality; baving lacted as all Times approved himself their any good Friend, as two of his Children and been sheir Scholars in the Portuguese and English

Of which Regard and Readiness to serve them he has since given the most convincing Proofs, not only by what he has done in the public Administration of his Government, and in personal Civilities to their Missionaries, but likewise by the real Christian Zeal he professes and manifefts on every Occasion to the good Design of the Miffion itself; for the which he is hereby defired to accept their public Thanks, together with their Wishes and Prayers for the Continuance of his Health, and of that Prosperity he has hitherto had in every Undertaking for remeting Christian Knowledge; or for advancing the Interest of the East-India Company in all Affairs under his Direction and Management. 2116 to their Mar

"They have, besides, in their Town and Country Schools, about 300 Children under their Care and Instruction; nay, the ordinary Duties of their Mission and Ministry have been enlarged by the coming of three Companies of Soldiers on board two Danish Men of War; who for the most having no Knowledge of any Language but the German, the Government at Tranquebar have requested the Missionaries to preach to them the Word of God, and give them the Holy Communion in their Mother-Tongue, which had been done ever since.—They conclude with congratulating the Society on the good Tidings which were just then brought them from their Brethren at Madras, for which they doubt not but all who love God and his Christ, will heartily praise the Lord, whose Name is Marvellous."

The Society are willing to believe, that fo long and circumstantial a Detail of the Proceedings and Affairs of their feveral Missions in the East-Indies, can need no Apology; but will rather be the more acceptable on Account of fo many extraordinary and marvellous Interpolals of Providence for their Protection and Prosperity.—They indeed are full of Hopes, that they may hereby engage the united Prayers of all good Christians and Protestants to Gon for the Continuance of his Bieffings; and likewise excite fuch, whom Goo hath bleffed in their Substance, (and more particularly through the East-India Trade) to abound even to the Riches of their Liberality (after the Example of that Honourable Company, and its Agents abroad) in their Contributions for supporting, re-establishing, and enlarging such Missions, as have no other Defign at Heart, or End in View, but to spread through that Part of an idolatrous, wicked, and ignorant World, the Gofpel of Christ which came from Heaven, in its scriptural Truth and Purity: and thereby to promote the Glory of Gon and the Salvation of Souls, together with Peace and Good-will, Righteousness and Happiness among all Mankind, unto the Ends of the Earth 1940, Louis.

THE Society for promoting Co-film Knowledge having those who have their Deligns at Hearty finished a filmed Impression of 15000 Weleb Bibles and Common Prayer Books, are considering how, and through whose Hunds, they may order such a Distribution of them, as will distribe the Good they hope to do thereby throughout the whole Principality of Walts; since all Pares of it have alike shewn their Disposition to contribute what Assistance they could towards turnishing its numerous and poor linksbitants with so inestimable a Treasure, as that of having the Word of Good in their native Language, in as plentish a Manner, and at an easier Expense than we enjoy it in Empland. Such indeed has been their Zeal in this Christian and character work, that we have Reason to believe, from all the Such indeed has been their Zeal in this Christian and charitable Work, that we have Reason to believe, from all the Letters and Accounts that have been already received, that even this second Impression (large as it is) may full short of the extraordinary and universal Demand that will be made for it. However, as it concerns the Society, not only to prevent Abuses of every kind in the Distribution, but also to take what care they can, that it be dispersed most prudently, usefully, and extensively; so they have with this view requested and obtained the Advice. fons, a due Regard not only to the Extent of each Dio-cele, but likewife to the Number and Circumstances of its Welch Inhabitants.—Accordingly we have it in command from the Society, to delire of their own Members, and of every one else that shall be any wife entrusted with such a Distribution, that they will be pleased (as soon as they can) to signify to us how many Books they think they shall have an Opportunity to dispose of a distinguishing each Diocese, may, each Parish, and, if it may be, each Family, wherein they propose to distribute them; and being careful, that, though they have not the Plenty they could wish, there may still be no such Scarcity, but that each fingle Family may be benefited, without doing a Prejudice to others, who may fland in equal need of the fame Bleffing, and are known to be no less willing to use it religiously. It being both the Intention and Desire of the Society, to supply all their Wants, at least in such equal Proportions as this impression will allow of, and at such Times as they can most conveniently, and consistently with the other Branches of their Designs.—But as the Binding up of fich a Number of Books will take up a long Time, and be attended with a very large Expence, so they hope the Distributors will be content to receive them in such Proportions as they can be supplied, under this Assurance, That they will be equally dealt with in their feveral Packets, till the whole Number the Society can allot to each of them be completed and fent. In the mean while, however, the Binding of this whole Impression (which is contracted for) will be forwarded with all the Haste that can be made without damaging the Books themselves; the first Packets whereof (will, it is imagined, be in readiness to go into the Country about Michaelmas will be no more, if bound together, than Three Shillings and Simpence. Carriage included, to that whatever the Distributors shall pay on this Account, will always be deducted out of their Remittances for Packets.—However, as the Number of Bibles in this Impression may not be sufficient to gratify the Desires, or supply the Wants, of all Persons and Families; the Society, from a compassionate fionate and Christian Regard to Schools and Servants, have inted a separate Edition of 5000 New Testaments, and as may be had for two Stilling and of the Carriage will be allowed in like manner as for TEM, J. A. B. de bereby give and bequeal builde C. D. of ores La dad E. Tan SW

N. B. This Book is wrote in a plain, of the content of the Capacities of the most Unlearned and Ignorant expects the yourset Part of all Families: And the Author has therefore careful accident to yourset Part of all Families: And the Author has therefore careful accident to yourset Part of all Families: And the Author has therefore careful accident and divert them from attending to, and practifing the important Doctrines of our Holy Religion. Had this little Book been intended for the Use of Heathers only, many Things might have been omitted: But when one sees, even amongst Christians of all Persuasions, too many, who, with respect either to Knowledge or Practice, are not much better than Heathenss who know little of a Saviour and Redeemer, and the Necessity of being governed by the Laws of the Gospel: Upon these mournful Considerations, the Author thought proper to add many Things, which, through the Blessing of Almighty God, might be of use to awaken and convert such miserable and unthoughtful People.

This Book is translated by a good Hand into French, and is lately printed at Geneva, for the Use of Protestants of All Denominations, in foreign Parts, as well as in these Kingdoms, and a Number of them are now in the Hands of Brujamin Dob. Bookseller to the Society for Promoting Christian Knowledge, at the Bible and Key in Ave Mary Lane; and will be disposed of at Reasonable Rates.
